Katie,
Found out Mr. Goldwire is hospitalized. I will call him in the hospital to see how he is doing,
Maybe, there is a notary in the hospital that I can have visit him with the release.

Peggy,

Could you give us an update on Goldwire at your convenience? Finance wants us to get the release submitted before the end of the fiscal year.

Anne,

I spoke with his mother, who indicated that he was out of town. She indicated that he would call me when he returned but I have not heard from him.

Additionally, she indicated that he may not have received the releases I sent because he had an argument with his girlfriend and had moved. I will follow up with the mom.

Peggy,

I'm following up on the below emails between you and Anne. Have you been able to get the release signed by Mr. Goldwire?

Thanks,
Katie

Thanks, Peggy. Would it be helpful to you if we filed a motion to enforce? (We can certainly not do this, but happy to do so if it's a value-add exercise. We had this happen in another couple of cases, although non-NFU.)

Anne,

I sent the release to him on 3 separate occasions but he hasn't returned it. He is a difficult client and wants to renegotiate our fee agreement, which I am not willing to do.

Good morning, Peggy.

Following up on this resolution, our records suggest that we've not yet received the signed release. I apologize if I administratively erred on that, but could you either send (or resend) the executed release and short form so that we can push this through?

Thanks so much,
Anne

Peggy,

Attached here please find a release. Please return it with your updated W-9 and the attached Medicare form.

Thanks,
Anne

Anne,

I hope we can settle for $11,000.00, which will cover my filing fee and service of the complaint. Mr. Goldwire is very difficult & I would like to settle this case.

It would be nice nice not to have to deal with Mr. Goldwire. Caught him in a better mood today than last week .

Good afternoon, Peggy.

Thank you for circling back on this one. I reviewed Mr. Goldwire's arrest history, and it appears that he was held not only because of the narcotics arrest at issue in this case but also because of his February 2003 VUFA arrest and conviction (for which he was sentenced to 18-60 months incarceration) and his February 2005 narcotics arrest and conviction (for which he was sentenced to 2.5-5 years incarceration).

Notwithstanding the information that suggests his time served was a function of other convictions, in an effort to resolve the matter, the City will increase its offer to $9,500.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Thanks,
Anne
